 UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN PRESS

A 3D bar chart showing the distribution of the number of children per family across different countries. The x-axis represents the number of children (0 to 5), and the y-axis represents the percentage of families. The bars are color-coded by country: Germany (blue), France (orange), Italy (green), Spain (red), and the UK (purple). Germany has the highest percentage of families with 0 children, while the UK has the highest percentage of families with 2 children.
